

Heroes in Flesh and Blood TCG have various strengths! Power & endurance for some, speed & efficiency for others

Question:

- Which hero's cards are best in each measurable category?

Analysis:

- Used average values for each hero's card pool to find highs and lows

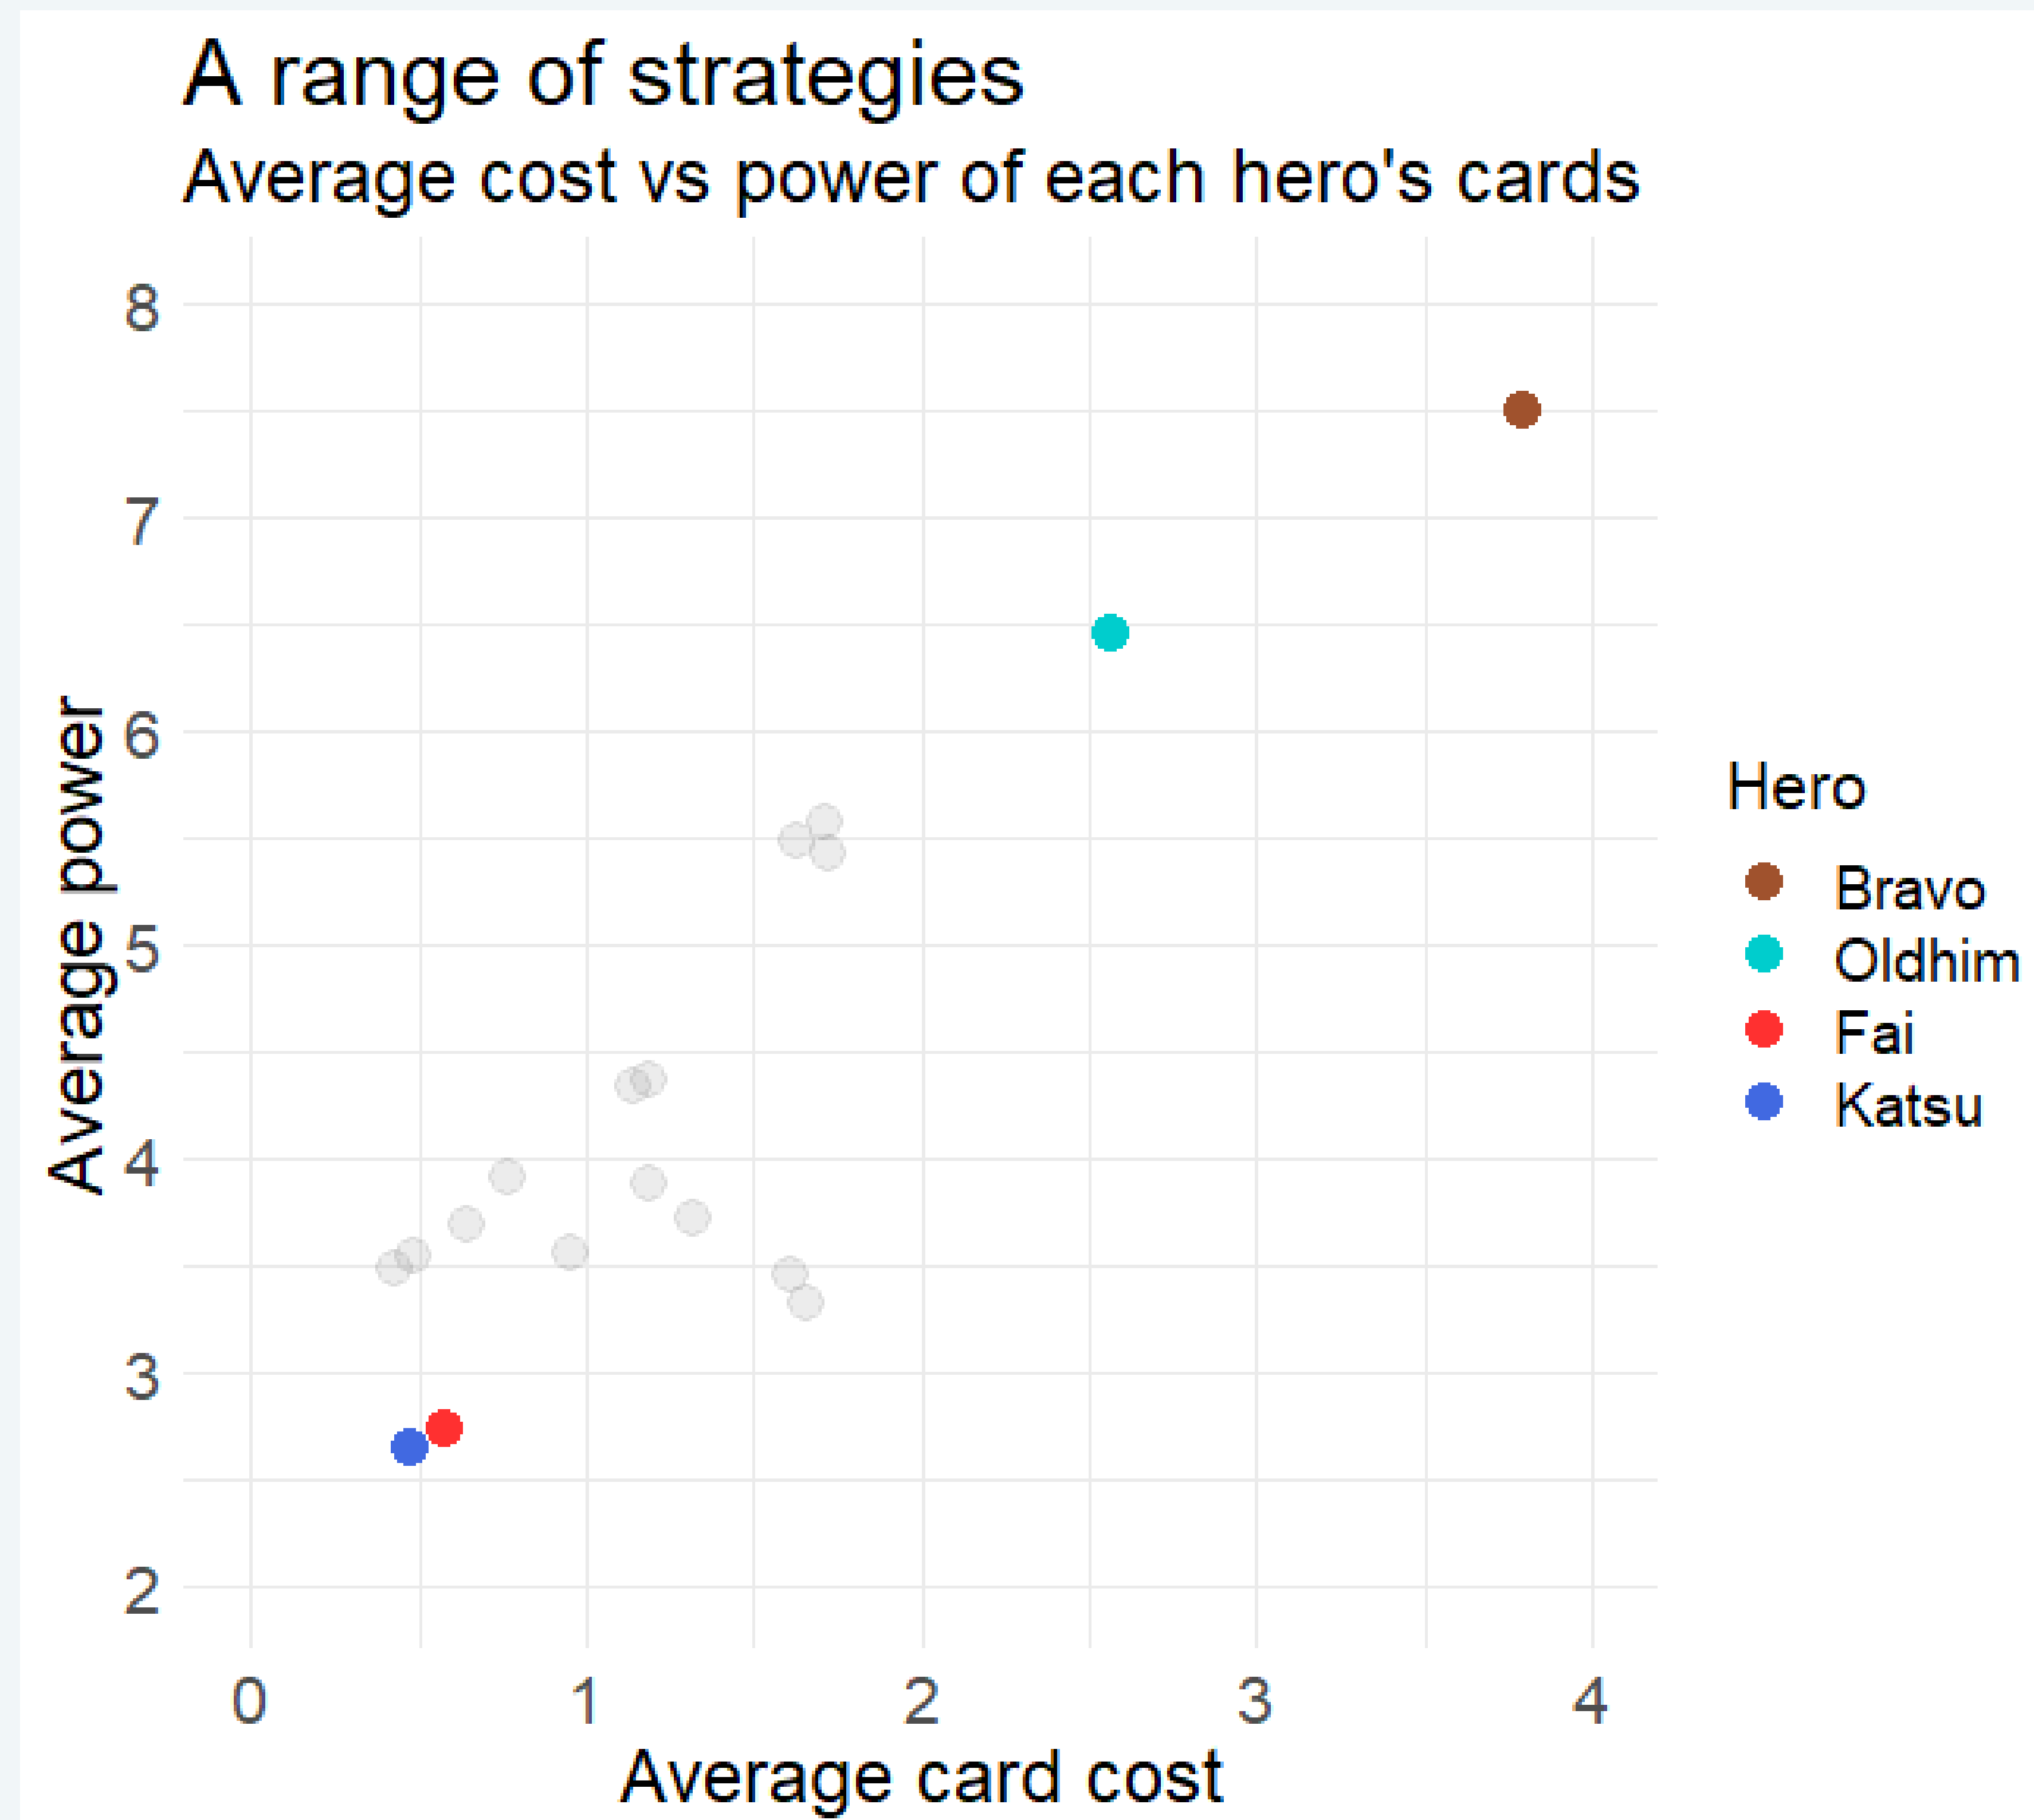

Conclusion:

- There are clear winners in two ways (slow but strong vs fast but weak)

Next step:

- Figure out a way to account for more qualitative attributes
